

Mechanical Design - Mirai Kikai Co. Ltd

Job Description

Based on the current cost targets in solar cleaning robots. We will be responsible for design improvements and other design work for mass production. In addition to the different types of solar cleaning robots. We are also planning to launch robots for infrastructure inspection and other purposes. Development of prototypes, development of product functions based on customer needs You will perform a wide range of duties up to and including mass production design.

Requirements

*We don't just design prototypes, we also design hundreds to thousands of units.

- 3 to 5 years of experience in 3D-CAD drafting
- Experience in mass production design, selection of suppliers and negotiations for mass production
- Experience in designing mobile machines and robots
- Experience in developing project leadership and management