

LIFULL CO., LTD - System Architect

Job Description

You will be responsible for the development and operation of the property search engine for one of Japan's largest real estate and housing information sites, "LIFULL HOME'S".

To improve the current status of the property search engine and increase the room for new initiatives using the search engine in "LIFULL HOME'S". Added functionality through version upgrades, increased number of trials through operational improvements, etc.

To deliver new value to end-users by communicating with LIFULL HOME'S staff to add and improve functions in line with end-users.

Responsibilities

- Experience building and running SolrCloud.
- Experience in development of applications using Go / Node.js / TypeScript.
- Experience in deploying AWS environments and building CI/CD environments using CloudFormation.
- JVM tuning experience
- Domain-driven design experience.
- Sub-leader or higher experience in a team of 3 or more engineers